Farewell to Yoder

July 26, 2010 saw the NCLF Air Force fly it's final mission to Yoder Field. A squadron of seven paid homage to the memories of the field and the friendships that small piece of land inspired.

Final Fly-in to Yoder's Airport

Organized by Don James, the group rallied at Salem Airpark at 8:00 for breakfast. I counted seven planes for breakfast. Don stated that the flight over was smooth. The weather was fantastic. Everyone ate well and left Salem for Yoder with a 10:00 ETA. I was able to capture the moment in stills and video. I am currently editing the movie and I will make it available to view at my website "paulcsornok.net". Caution – it is a large file! You'll be able to see the group practice their "aborted landing" passes.

All went well with the flight, and we didn't leave anyone up there. We had a local reporter there who was taking pictures and interviewing people. Look for it soon. After a visit with Forest and watching him take apart the gas pump, we watched the tetrahedron taken away on a trailer. It's the end of an era.

After the closing of the field in June, there will be the big, ugly "X" on the runway, marking it as closed. If you have any desire to fly into the airport one last time, you need to make plans sooner than later.

August Picnic at Mayfield Airport

The July meeting will include the planning of the Jonathan Gamble Memorial Picnic for our August 7th meeting. Mike Baker has allowed us the use of the airport for the picnic (Thanks Mike!). The menu will include Burgers and Hot Dogs, and what else people bring to share. All the specifics will be addressed at the meeting and the next newsletter will include them, but plan it to start about 3:00.
